A hybrid collection of digital & analog instructions in times of crisis.

Living in a dying world. How do we live? How do we survive?

The second edition HTSSNASS:S COLLECTION 2021 deals with the question of self-empowerment. What resources, ideas, thoughts and ways did you figure out in dealing with crises? Especially in the face of climate catastrophes. Forest fires, floods, plagues of locusts: while the world was battling the virus, all continents were also affected by devastating ecological disasters.

Environment refers to something with which a living being (or something that is treated analogously to a living being) has a causal relationship.

We are constantly connected to what surrounds us. But our world is changing and running on fumes. Neo-cyborgs, connected to everything and at all times, but what kind of connection do we still have with ourselves and the creatures we threaten? For a long time, hegemonies of hypercapitalism determine and control our lives with numerous supposed promises of a fulfilled life. Material and immaterial exchange ensures survival, right? Really?

We feel lost, but we don't want to see it all go down. To put it briefly we are all in the same boat and in the end it is up to us to find strategies to survive and preserve the living creation around us. Which self-empowerment strategies can we develop with which we can protect ourselves and mother earth from the omnivorous force of the mighty?

With these background ideas in mind, we would like to invite you to develop INSTRUCTIONS. Selected works will be published online and will be made available for free to everyone via a download link + will be published in the printed publication HTSSNASS:S COLLECTION 2021 as a part of SuperBOOKS at Haus der Kunst in Munich in November 2021.
