

Andre Bagh In 1993 my mother gave birth to me. I went to school and later got an art degree at my birthplace. Currently, I am living, working and studying art in Munich. In between the past and present, I was fortunate enough to meet many people, learning a lot about them and myself with each encounter; accumulating every person's influence and impression to the shape that I can now call myself.